ARCHITECTURE MAGAZINE

Dear Members of the Faculty,

Dear Colleagues,

the next issue of GAM – Graz Architecture Magazine will be published in spring 2019. GAM.15, addressing the theme of “Territorial Justice,” will look at the development of peri-urban areas.

Also GAM.15 will devote one of its sections to the “Faculty News”, presenting an overview of the faculty’s most important events and activities spanning from Dezember 2017 to October 2018. In addition, we welcome submissions to be published via the faculty homepage (category “News”).

We therefore warmly invite all institutes and members of the faculty to submit contributions to the following categories:

- Faculty: obituaries, new professorships,
- Research: Current and completed research projects,
- Publications: Monographies, Book projects,
- Awards: Prizes, Scholarships, Competitions,
- Exhibitions: Participation in exhibitions, workshops, etc.
- Events / Projects: Participation in competitions, workshops, master studio presentations, lectures, etc.

Please submit a maximum of two illustrations as separate tiff.- or JPEG-files and in high resolution (300 dpi) together with your text. Please note that due to space limitations not every illustration can be considered in the print version. Please make sure you have considered and followed the stylistic guidelines (see attachment) before you submit your text. Send your text and visual material with the reference “Contribution to Faculty News” to gam@tugraz.at.

The deadline for submissions is November 5th, 2018.

I am looking forward to your contributions.

Best regards

Doris Stadler, BA MA
