LYON – NICE LIVING CITY

Lyon was a double prize winner at the 2007 LivCom Awards for liveable communities

A green city

The refurbishing of the Rhône river banks beautiful has revealed over a 5 kilometer stretch of modern and delightful walkways. According to Lyonnais Mayor Gérard Collomb, these modifications give the city “a new philosophy and a peaceful family atmosphere”. The park “La tête d’Or” is a beautiful 16 hectare surface built from a Rhône arm and containing a botanical and zoological garden.

The silk and its historical district

Lyon is the capital of silk weaving in France. You will discover the “Traboules” (passageways) winding down the hill of the Croix-Rousse where 30.000 silk weavers used to live in the 19th century. At the silk printing workshop, printers will demonstrate Lyon’s traditional know how.

Lyon renaissance district

This Renaissance district, listed by UNESCO, is the largest area of its kind in France.

It consists of 3 separate villages: St Georges to the South, St Paul to the North-East, and St Jean in the middle.

The museum of contemporary art

The Museum of Contemporary Art, designed by Renzo Piano, is located near the Tête d'Or Park, at the Cité Internationale. From its creation, the museum houses a collection of constantly updated contemporary art.

Archeological treasure

The Gallo-Roman Museum of Lyon-Fourvière and the archaeological site are situated on the slopes of the Fourvière hill, formerly in the center of the Roman City of Lugdunum, founded in 43 B.C. A superb collection of mosaics, sarcophagi, statues and artifacts, are preserved in this museum.

The Museum of cinema

In 1895, the City of Lyon became the birthplace of the 7th art, when Auguste and Louis Lumière invented the "Cinématographe". The Lumière museum, where you can discover the Lumière brothers' fabulous inventions, is housed in the family villa. The Hangar of the first film, all that remains of the Lumière factories and first Cinématographe scene, has been turned into a large cinema, in which the Lumière Institute shows the great classics, rare films, and major retrospectives.

Lyon welcomes several european level events

In December: "Festival of lights"

The illuminations are accompanied by different outdoor events which attract over 4 million visitors every year. The Festival of Lights offers artists the opportunity to work with this unusual medium. Light shows and temporary installations are staged throughout the city in a display of unbridled creativity and innovation for 4 days around December 8th.

Biennial festival of Contemporary Arts

The Lyon Biennial has emerged as a "must see" event on the contemporary art scene. This 3 months lasting international event is a completely new and different exhibition each edition, with a new theme and a new organizer, presenting new sculptures, paintings, videos, photos, happenings or visual displays from some 70 international artists.

Biennial festival of dance (held on even years)

A key event in the world of dance, the Lyon Dance Biennial brings together almost 100,000 spectators who come to be amazed and moved by the beauty of the choreography. During a whole month of performances, the world's best dancers and top international companies are welcomed in the theatres of Lyon and in this street. As part of the biennial, the streets will be invaded by a vibrant parade, several dance flashmobs, and plenty of dance lessons and open air shows..

The Lumière Film Festival

First established in October 2009, this festival is dedicated to the Cinema's history, for the general public. Once a year the birthplace of the Lumière Cinematograph will invite the world of cinema to a festival in honor of its vitality and its memory. This event will look at our international heritage, reaffirming the love of cinema engrained in our collective memory, in a novel way.

The Nuits de Fourvière Festival

Les Nuits de Fourvière Festival offers a multidisciplinary programme of theatre, dance, opera, music and circus: eight weeks of festivities, 118 performances from 42 different shows. Among them, 6 creations, 7 French premieres, 6 world premieres and many co-productions will be presented in the Gallo-roman site of Fourvière.
