The answers to the exam questions should be comprehensible and well-argued. Keep your answers brief and as precise as possible. Note that no points can be awarded for illegible answers and answers that are not in the language of the exam. The quantity of the answers does not lead to a gain of points.

The two parts of the exam do not have to be positive individually in order to receive a positive grade on the exam overall. It is not possible to credit positively completed parts to the next examination attempt.
