

SCHOLARSHIP GRANT for the calendar year 2022

of the Faculty of Architecture

---

According to § 63 Studienförderungsgesetz (StudFG) Student Support Act, scholarship grants exist to support degree programme students working on academic theses or artistic works (diploma thesis, master's thesis, doctoral thesis).

A scholarship grant for one academic year cannot be less than € 750 and cannot exceed € 3,600.

According to § 67 (2) StudFG the Department of Academic Affairs awards the grant. There is no automatic entitlement to a grant.

If a grant is awarded, the scholarship grant must be used appropriately according to StudFG, which means that a report on the statement of costs is to be submitted to the relevant Dean of Studies.

A Requirements according to § 66 StudFG:

1. The applicant has Austrian citizenship or is considered as equivalent to Austrian citizens according to § 4 StudFG.
2. An application written by the student for a scholarship grant to undertake a thesis that has not yet been completed, which includes a description of the thesis, a statement of costs and a financing plan.
3. Submission of one report by a habilitated TU Graz faculty member on the statement of costs, as well as on the candidate's academic performance to date and his or her proposed thesis, and whether or not, in the faculty member's opinion, the candidate will be able to complete the thesis with above average success.
4. Compliance with entitlement period of the relevant stage of a degree programme according to § 18 (this is the legally defined period of study plus one additional semester), considering possible important reasons stipulated in § 19 (e.g. pregnancy, military service. etc.)
5. Compliance with the submission requirements: documents as described in sections A and B.

B The applicant must also submit:

A data sheet (for master's students and PhD students)
