

Baran Rubar Çakar is currently pursuing his bachelor's degree in Sociology at Van Yüzüncü Yıl University. Baran is interested in social enterprises, social relations, and societal dynamics in connection with his field of study. He participated in a study on the youth profile in Turkey, during which he conducted surveys and interviews with young people. Additionally, to observe social relationships and continue his work in the field, he takes an active role in the sociology department's student community.