

Form A : Cover Letter

Please write a brief introduction of yourself, highlighting your academic background / merits and current field of study. A description of your personal, social, economic, and professional circumstances, as well as your academic performance, that may be relevant to your scholarship application. If possible, outline your future academic and career plans, including the field in which you wish to further pursue your academic knowledge.