Discover Graz – a multicultural and vibrant student city with mediterranean influence.

Situated in the center of Europe, Graz is the second largest city in Austria after Vienna, but has a population of only 330,000 inhabitants, including 60,000 students.

The city center has countless historically valuable buildings from different eras, restored with loving attention to detail. So Graz is a cosy little town with flair and atmosphere, full of contrasts, with a long history as well as a vibrant city life.

Graz hosts people from 160 different nationalities who live, study and work here and make Graz a gathering of international communities.

There is a wide range of cultural offerings such as festivals, theaters, and concerts. You can find modern architecture as well as museums and galleries, parks and gardens or sports facilities. There is a vast variety of cafés and pubs, and a favourite spot around every corner.
