Conditions of Application and Cancellation
for the Postgraduate Master's programme SpaceTech, MEng at Graz University of Technology current version as of 16.10.2019

The currently valid conditions on application and cancellation apply to admission to and participation in university continuing education programmes at Graz University of Technology (TU Graz). The rights and obligations of the participant regarding individual educational programmes or events can be found in more detail in the specific curriculum as well as in programme or event information and other TU Graz newsletters.

1. Application and registration requirements

The application must be submitted in writing by this application form.

The academic direction decides without exception on admission or rejection of applicants. Since only a limited number of students are admitted to the programme, the academic direction reserves the right to select applicants according to academic criteria, to employ a ranking system and to reject applicants. The applicants are selected according to criteria defined in the specific curriculum. Participants will be informed of their admission in writing.

2. Data protection

By applying for the programme, the participant gives their explicit consent to TU Graz Life Learning to process the data they submit for the purpose of organizing and administering the programme in accordance with the European and national data protection regulations. All data are handled confidentially and are not transmitted to any third party unless it is agreed otherwise or required by law.

With respect to the sending of information and advertising material, we refer to our data protection information: www.tugraz.at/go/LLL-Data-Protection

Consent to receiving information and advertising materials can be withdrawn at any time informally (contact: lifelong.learning@tugraz.at). By signing the application form, that the participant confirms that they have read the data protection statement.

3. Terms of cancellation

Cancellation of the registration by the participant is possible up to 30 calendar days before the beginning of the programme by means of an explicit communication addressed to the programme management of the programme. The cancellation becomes effective at the time when it is received. In this case, an administration fee of 20% of the total programme fee is charged.

In the event of cancellations later than 30 calendar days before the beginning of the programme, the entire programme fee is due and is not refunded. However, the participant may nominate a suitable substitute. The substitute participant must be nominated before the beginning of the programme and must meet the admission criteria, subject to the adjudication of the academic programme director. The originally registered participant remains liable for the payment of the programme fee until the substitute participant has paid the invoiced fees in full.

In the event that the participant withdraws from the programme for any reason at any time after it has begun, the entire programme fee remains due and is not refunded.

Note: The German language version of this contract is binding and definitive.
