Living in Graz

Graz with a population of 300,000 is the second-largest Austrian city after Vienna and the capital of the federal state of Styria. Graz has a long tradition as a student city and offers its students a vital everyday life with a wide range of diverse amusements. Its six universities have over 40,000 students. Graz' "Old Town" is one of the best-preserved city centers in Central Europe that was added to the UNESCO list of World Cultural Heritage Sites. Graz was sole Cultural Capital of Europe for 2003. The city is situated on the Mur River, in the south east of Austria. It is approximately 140 km southwest of Vienna or 2.5 hours by train / 2 hours by car. The nearest larger urban center is Maribor in Slovenia which is about 50 km away. One can reach many major European cities very easily from Graz, either by plane (Graz has got an international airport) or by train. Graz Airport is about 10 kilometers south of the city center. The international destinations from Graz are Berlin, Düsseldorf, Munich, Stuttgart, Zurich, Paris, Glasgow, Rome, Tallinn and Lisbon.
